LOCAL MAN LEAPS TO DEATH IN BAY FATHER OF EIGHT CHILDREN FOUND GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

G. C. YOUNG IS INAUGURATED AS GOVERNOR

Buron Fitts Takes Oath
As Lieut.-Governor Of California

By WILLIAM H. JORDAN
(By Universal Service)
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 4.—G. C. Young for the last eight years lieutenant-governor of this state today was inaugurated as governor of California.

In the presence of a large assemblage, in the capitol, amid the boom of cannon and the plaudits of a throng of people, the governor-elect took the oath of office, administered by Judge William H. Waste, chief justice of Supreme Court, his college mate 35 years ago at the University of California.

And before the same audience Buron Fitts, World War veteran, became lieutenant-governor of the state. Judge Waste also pronouncing the solemn words which registered his pledge to serve the people, according to the constitution of the United States and the state of California.

Impressive as were the induction ceremonies, they received an added interest from the presence of the following:

Musical Burglar Discovered Here

Richmond has its "building burglar" and now we have with us a musical burglar. Not only a musical burglar but a daylight yegg, too.

H. F. McGee, 411 Fresno street reported to the police that yesterday between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. some one had pried open a rear window and entered his home, taking a five tube radio set, a mandolin and a banjo. These articles are valued at $248.50.

H. H. Patton reported that some one entered his home at 27 Water street yesterday between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. and stole a kit of tools, valued at $26.50. Entrance was gained through an unlocked door in the basement.

Sugar Shipments Are Resumed Here

Installation of the sounding boards and the signals in the inner harbor channel related in the resuming of sugar shipments here by the California-Hawaiian Sugar company. The sugar company resumed shipments to the Richmond Municipal Wharf number two, now operated by the Parr Terminal company, yesterday after an interruption of some time.

Continue Search Of Murderer Of Child

Investigation is being continued by the office of Coroner Aubrey Wilson, and the police department in an attempt to locate the persons responsible for the death of the infant girl whose body was found on the beach near the Richmond-San Rafael ferry slip on Sunday.

The body was badly mutilated when it was found. The skull had been crushed and there were numerous wounds about the body, seemingly inflicted with a knife, which lead the police to believe that the child was murdered before being thrown into the water. Although no autopsy has yet been performed, the condition of the lungs of the girl will determine whether she was dead before being cast into the water, according to Coroner Wilson. Wilson and Kratzer have charge of the body.

Admiral Latimer Lands Marines In Nicaragua To Protect U. S. Interests

Admiral Julian L. Latimer, commanding the American naval forces in Nicaraguan waters, recently landed marines and blue-jackets to protect American citizens and property and to establish a neutral zone. This action was taken because of hostilities between the forces of President Diaz and Dr. Sacasa, the Liberal contender for the presidency. The Diaz government has been recognized by the United States, and it is alleged that Dr. Sacasa has received arms and ammunition from Mexico.

KEYES REFUSES STATEMENT ON "AIMEE" CASE

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4.—Renewal of the inquiry into the Aimee Semple McPherson disappearance case was delayed again today when the grand jury met without calling any witnesses connected with the mystery.

Although it had been expected that Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sellaf, the "hoax woman" of the case, would be recalled for further questioning in regard to the numerous versions she has told of the episode, there was no request for her presence from the jury room, nor did the jury indicate that it had completed its findings in regard to the case.

District Attorney Asa Keyes was reported on reliable authority to have reached a definite decision as to the whether or not he will proceed with the prosecution of the evangelist and her mother, Mrs. Minnie A. Kennedy. While it was believed in many quarters that he had finally decided it was useless to attempt further prosecution, he refused to make any definite statement.

Builders Exchange To Hold Meeting On Friday Night

The first meeting of the new year will be held by the Richmond Builders' exchange on Friday night at the exchange, according to Leonard Dexter, secretary.

This will be one of the most important business meetings of the year and Dexter urges all members to be in attendance. The Thursday noon luncheons will be resumed this Thursday. Dexter has announced. These luncheons have proved popular during the past year and through 1927 they will be the best possible, according to officials of the exchange.

President E. H. Higgins will preside on Friday night.

U. S. MARINES WILL REMAIN IN NICARAGUA

Lives of U. S. Citizens
And Nation's Rights
To Be Protected

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Uncle Sam's Marines are going to stay in Nicaragua.

They will be kept there through the revolution to protect American lives and property.

They will be maintained there also to guard America's rights to construct a canal through the southern republic and a naval base at Fonseca Bay on the Pacific Coast that may some day be the stronghold against anti-American aggression from the far east.

That was today announced as the policy of the United States government by President Coolidge. It constitutes a stiffening of the government's policy in Central America and the final reply of the President to critics in congress and to pacifist organizations "demanding" immediate withdrawal of the marines.

On one point alone President Coolidge and Secretary of State Kellogg seemed to be out of accord on this policy toward the war-torn republic. President Coolidge was resolved that the American troops shall retain complete neutrality toward the government and revolutionary forces as they now approach the decisive battles of their fratricidal war.

The President seemed determined that victory shall be allowed to perch upon the standards of President Diaz or Dr. Sacasa as may be determined by the success of their contending armies and that Nicaragua shall thus be allowed to select the government of its own choosing.

Kellogg, on the other hand, was evidently alarmed by the prospect of success of the revolutionary armies. He still believes that "Mexican Bolshevism" has contributed largely to Sacasa's victories and he let it be known that he regards the success of any "revolutionary or anarchistic" movement as a threat to the best interests of the United States.

Supervisors Endorse Salary Increase For Judges of County

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—Increase in salary for the two superior judges of the county from $5,000 to $7,500 a year was favored by the Contra Costa County board of supervisors. A recommendation was adopted yesterday approving of the increase and urging that it be included in the recommendation for a new county government bill before the present state legislature session.

That the cases handled by the superior judges had greatly increased, while their salaries had remained stationary in this county, were noted in the resolution.

Mrs. Agnes Hurley, county recorder, submitted a report to the board depicting the great increase in business of her office during the past five years. A total of 15,449 instruments were filed for 1926 against the 9,818 recorded in 1921 was shown in the report. Fees collected during the past year showed an increase of $3,747 over 1925. A surplus of $6,655 of the total fees collected in 1926 of $22,905 were returned to the county treasurer after the salaries and expenses of the office had been deducted. The salaries paid out of the office amounted to $17,350 for the past year.

The Ford Motor Company And Its Phenominal Progress Is Discussed At Lions Session

Three great contributions to modern life by Henry Ford were pointed out by Fred Parr, president of the Parr Terminal company, in his talk before the Richmond Lions club yesterday noon at the Hotel Carquinez. Parr declared that the popularizing of an inexpensive make of automobile, the advent of the tractor to farm life, and his present undertaking to make the airplane a popular means of transportation were Ford's great achievements.

Ford was described by Parr as an independent thinker who worked out his own way of doing things regardless of precedent. The system employed by Ford in his dealings with his employees, and his philanthropic work and his personal interest in the home life of his employees, were noted by the speaker.

No one will question the fact that Henry Ford is the greatest asset of the Ford Motor company, and those who have had close contact with the office will appreciate that his son, Edsel, is going to be a worthy successor.

Unique Character
"Henry Ford is a unique character in American life. He has always blazed a new trail and has done what many instances have seemed to be impossible. In anyone's opinion, the Ford Motor company has developed to its gigantic proportions merely by chance, he is very greatly mistaken. That company has flourished because of the genius that is back of it."

"Henry Ford believes in relying upon his own judgment and he is the active, actual head of the Ford Motor company. Those words of Henry might well apply to Henry Ford as he has such confidence in his own judgment, and is willing to stand upon his convictions. Henry said:

"It matters not how straight the gait
How charged with punishment
I am the master of my fate
I am the captain of my soul."

"Mr. Ford reminds me a great deal of William Randolph Hearst in at least one particular; namely, he believes in hiring the very best talent that can be secured in the land and in paying good wages for good service. He is not a sentimentalist in any sense of the word but a hard-headed business executive who believes in getting a dollar's worth of value for a dollar's worth of compensation."

100 Percent Efficiency
"While in Detroit I was told that Henry Ford often discharged men who had been in his employ for a great many years and who were receiving what might be termed exorbitant salaries, merely because they had ceased to function in a manner that would produce an adequate return upon the expenditure. Some felt that this was rather severe on the part of Mr. Ford but others justified it with the statement that Mr. Ford always paid good wages and good salaries and that if a man would not hesitate to do so, and, on the other hand, Mr. Ford reserved to himself the right to make a change if at anytime he felt that the particular work or department could be handled by another laborer or executive. In other words, Mr. Ford insists upon maintaining every department of his business on a basis of 100 percent efficiency."

Philanthropic Work
"On the other hand, Mr. Ford does a great deal of charitable and philanthropic work. He gives employment, through the Ford Motor company, to some 350 men and women who are physically handicapped to the extent that they could not fit into the ordinary commercial positions without great difficulty. Furthermore he gives employment to some 1600 boys, on an average, a large number of whom are sent to him by the Juvenile Court. The boys are paid 20c an hour while learning the trade, and it is claimed that 98 percent of these boys enter the employ of the Ford Motor company on the full wage scale as soon as they have completed their training."

"One of the outstanding pieces of philanthropic work under the direction of Mr. Ford is the great Ford hospital at Detroit. It is one of the finest equipped hospitals in the land and, while the charges are high, nevertheless the hospital is run at a loss and the deficit is taken care of by Mr. Ford merely as a service to humanity."

Interest in Families
"It is claimed that, the Ford Motor company takes a great interest in the families of its employees, in so far as this personal contact is possible, and we know that that company allows its employees to invest their money with the Ford Motor company on a basis that returns more than one percent per month, up to a maximum investment for any one person. This arrangement terminates of course when the employment ceases."

Own Stores
"The Ford Motor company maintains its own stores for the sale of groceries, meats and certain kinds of wearing apparel, all of (Continued on Page 5)

R. H. MC LEAN LOSES LIFE AT FERRY LANDING

Despondency and Shell
Shock Given as Cause
For Youths Action

Suffering from shell shock and appearing in a despondent mood, Robert H. McLean, 453 A street, of this city, an employee at the Standard Oil refinery, jumped to his death from the ferry boat Isaquah of the Rodco-Vallejo ferry at 11:30 last night.

McLean, in company with his brother John of Emeryville and a party of friends, was returning from a holiday trip in the valley. After the car in which he had been riding was driven on the boat, without a word to his companions, he ran to the front of the ferry and threw himself into the cold waters of the channel.

Officers of the Isaquah, docked at Morrow Cove for the loading of cars, made every possible effort to save the man but to no avail. Although the boat was delayed for some time no trace of the body could be found and the ferry completed its trip across the bay.

Officials of Solano county immediately started an investigation but McLean's companions were unable to give an explanation for his action. Efforts to locate the body last night were unsuccessful. The water at the ferry slip is about twenty-five feet deep and it is believed that the body has been caught behind one of the piles.

As far as could be learned last night, McLean lived at the A street address with his mother.

Martinez Seeks Street Sweeper

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—The board of trustees received two bids to furnish the city with a street sweeper. A bid of $7250 was submitted by the Elgin Sweeper company and the Austin Sweeper company submitted a bid of $7,450. However, awards of the bids have been postponed by the board until January 17. The trustees are to visit San Francisco and San Mateo to see the sweepers of the two concerns in operation before making a decision.

Asks Damages Of $7,500 Following Accident at Rodeo

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—James R. Blackwell today filed suit for $7,500 damages in the Superior Court against Glenn A. Wessels. Blackwell alleges that he received injuries in an automobile accident near Rodeo on October 11, 1926. He charges that Wessels was guilty of negligent driving when his car crashed into the Blackwell machine. Blackwell avers he suffered severe scalp and facial wounds, which have left a permanent disfigurement, concussion of the brain and numerous contusions. In addition to the damages he seeks remuneration of $222 for medical expenses incurred as a result of the accident.

Hotel Company Wins Suit Against Curry

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—Judgment of $480 against Bert Curry, Richmond undertaker, was awarded today by Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie in favor of the Richmond Community Hotel company for failure to pay on stocks in the hotel.

As Curry did not appear, the suit was awarded in favor of the hotel company through default. The judgment represented $440 for the principal and $40 in interest besides the attorney fees. The hotel company was represented by Attorney Homer W. Patterson.

CARS COLLIDE

No one was injured and slight damage was done when cars driven by Fito Morales and Jivier Heureta collided at First street and Nevil avenue yesterday afternoon.

NIMRODS ARE WARNED TO WATCH SUN

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—Warning is issued to the "hunter of ducks" to beware of the shadows of night. Two well known citizens of the county nearly suffered dire consequences when they were apprehended a few evenings ago by two federal game wardens while they were shooting a tilt in the Avon marshes. Had not they been able to prove their innocence by reference to an almanac which showed that the sun had set less than a half hour before, they might have been "telling it to the judge."

The federal statutes set sunrise and sunset as the dead line for the hunter. But the state law allows a half-hour before and after the appearance and departure of "old sol." And by the state statute, and only by this law, were the hunters able to prove their innocence.

SENATE TAKES ACTION TO END "POISON BOOZE"

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—An aroused senate took swift and determined action to end the government poison alcohol policy which is held indirectly responsible for the heavy death toll from bootleg booze.

Without debate or a record vote the senate adopted the resolution by Senator Edward I. Edwards, New Jersey, calling upon Secretary Mellon for full information bearing on poisoning of industrial alcohol.

The resolution asks especially for copies of all correspondence between Secretary Mellon and Wayne B. Wheeler, dry "generalissimo" bearing upon the poisoning of industrial alcohol for the purpose of rendering it unfit for beverage purposes.

To Investigate Death Of Child

ANTIOCH, Jan. 4.—Investigation of the circumstances surrounding the accident which caused the death of Madeleine Taillefer, five-year-old daughter of Bernard Taillefer, will be made by Coroner Aubrey Wilson. The child passed away yesterday at the St. Francis hospital, San Francisco, following her removal there after she had been struck by a bakery delivery wagon on Friday. It is said that the child was crossing the street near her home at the time of the accident.

Record Price Paid For Walnut Grove

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—A record sale for Contra Costa county orchard lands was recorded here yesterday when Frank V. Perry of San Leandro paid approximately $50,000 for thirty acres of walnut orchard in the Ygnacio Valley.

The tract was purchased from Mrs. Mary K. Adams and is devoted wholly to orchard and is devoid of ranch home or buildings. The property adjoins the Whitman and Durham holdings in the valley. Rodgers and Bray and the Contra Costa Abstract and Title company finally consummated the deal.

SUES ON NOTE

Seeking to collect $640 alleged to be due him on fees, Ernest Flores, local architect, filed suit against W. J. Bernier at Martinez yesterday.

PRISON TERM OF ONE TO TEN YEARS GIVEN

Slaying Followed Quarrel
Over $500 Stolen From Convicted Man

Found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in Judge A. B. McKenzie's court last night at 8:30 Joseph Vasquez, 44, Oakley pool hall nail owner and father of eight children faces a sentence in prison of from one to ten years for the slaying of Enrique Ponce, 28, at Oakley on September 16. Sentence will be passed by Judge McKenzie on Saturday morning.

The case was given into the hands of the jury yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after closing arguments by Deputy District Attorney James F. Hoey who prosecuted the case for the state.

Attorney T. D. Johnston, who was the counsel for the defense in his arguments before the jury declared that the evidence established that Vasquez acted in self defense when he killed Ponce by stabbing him during a quarrel. The quarrel is said to have ensued after a demand by Vasquez that Ponce return to him $500 he claims the slain man stole from him the morning of the slaying.

The quarrel which resulted in the slaying occurred in Vasquez's pool hall without any eye witnesses being present. Following the slaying Vasquez surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Ben Dal Porto.

Barbers Hold Annual Banquet

Almost a half-hundred barbers of the Richmond Barbers' Union gathered last night at the banquet rooms of the Hotel Carquinez for the annual banquet of the union. At this time the journeymen barbers were hosts to the master barbers and a delightful chicken dinner was served. J. E. Davis is president of the Master Barbers and D. F. Quintan is chief executive of the journeymen. Hall W. Sanders made the chief address of the evening and drew a comparison between the barber shops of England, France and the United States.

Jack Crow entertained with songs and stories.

Paul Cain and Ed Ramey were in charge of the event.

GUESTS AT CARQUINEZ
Albert Cohen, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Damsell, San Francisco; Evan Lucas, Richmond, and R. W. Down of Fresno were out of town guests registered at the Hotel Carquinez last night.

"THE LILY" AT CALIFORNIA HAS GRIPPING PLOT

"The Lily," Fox Films version of David Belasco's gripping stage success, which comes to the California Theater today and tomorrow offers theater patrons one of the most talented casts ever assembled for a motion picture play.

Heading the list is Belle Bennett who brings to the screen a technique second to none in America. She was virtually born under a circus tent and has been in theatrical work all her life.

Her work in "Stella Dallas" has won the praise of hardened critics throughout the world. In "The Lily" she is said to surpass even this supreme achievement.

She plays the difficult role of Odette.

Then comes John St. Polis, a Frenchman born in New Orleans of the old Bordeaux lineage, and considered one of Belasco's most gifted players. He is cast as Count de Maigny, Odette's father.

Ian Keith, a Bostonian who spent five years under the direct supervision of Belasco, is seen in the difficult role of Georges Arnaud, the handsome artist who loves Christiane, Count de Maigny's youngest daughter.

The somewhat trying role of the youngest son of Count de Maigny falls to a talented young actor from Argentina, Barry Norton. His love scenes with Gertrude Short are something altogether different.

Richard Tucker, cast as Huzar the lawyer, is a human and sympathetic figure opposite Belle Bennett, and their love moments rank with the most exquisite sequences ever filmed.

James Marcus, Tom Ricketts, Lydia Yeamans Titus and other well-known character actors complete the cast.

The locale is in France in the marvelous chateau of the count.

Victor Schertzinger directed the production in masterly fashion.

Other features include "Excess Baggage," a Juvenile comedy; "Varieties," and "International News."

Hampton Final Rites Are Held

Funeral services for Samuel Hampton, who passed away at his home, 261 Seventeenth street on Sunday afternoon, were conducted from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel yesterday at 2 o'clock. Interment followed at Sunset View cemetery.

Deceased was 72 years of age and a native of the Isle of Man. He came to California 40 years ago and to this city 14 years later. He leaves his wife and one son.

Given Two Weeks To Plead On Charge Of Drunken Driving

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—Charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and driving away from the scene of an accident without rendering assistance, Victor Erickson, of Bay Point, was arraigned before Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado today. He was granted two weeks in which to plead the case.

According to the admission of Erickson, he struck down Albert Klein, 50, an itinerant laborer, on the highway near Pittsburg and drove on to Bay Point, where he finally ditched the car. Erickson was arrested two weeks ago.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with the fingers.

Your druggist sells the tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Sisterly Advice

Belle Bennett, Barry Norton and John St. Polis in a scene from "THE LILY," which opens a two day engagement today at the California Theatre.

"LOST WORLD" IS FEATURE AT THE RICHMOND

"The bigger they are, the harder they fall," says Wallace Beery, who once trained elephants and more recently fought dinosaurs.

Enticed from home by the lure of the Ringling Brothers' circus, Wally's rise to fame began as a water boy and feeder to a herd of elephants. Later, when the elephants discovered that he wasn't really such a bad chap as he looked and began to display an unusual fondness for him, he was made their trainer.

This early experience in handling huge beasts was but child's play compared with the task allotted him in the First National-Watterson R. Rothacker spectacle, "The Lost World," the astounding film sensation at the Richmond Theater.

In this picture Beery, playing the role of a scientist, heads an expedition into the Amazon wilderness to discover prehistoric dinosaurs that have survived to this day, and he discovers that these creatures, some of them ten times larger than elephants, are untamable, even by a modern animal trainer.

But Beery's stage training helped him to outdo the dinosaurs in ferocity.

Beery is a motion picture veteran. As early as 1913 and 1914 a series of "Swede Comedies" was written around him. Nothing has been tempting enough to lure him away from pictures since. Short films complete the program.

Interment of Reuben Page, one of the last of California's "Forty-niners" who passed away at his home, 736 Fifth street, Sunday afternoon, will be made at Santa Cruz. The remains were shipped yesterday without any services being held in Richmond.

which are sold to the employees at substantially the cost price. This is merely another means of manifesting an interest in his employees which of course causes the employees to have a greater interest in the Ford Motor company.

Volume Production
"Mr. Ford is a great believer in large volume and small profits and it is because of this basis of operation that he has been able to out-distance all of his competitors in the manufacture and sale of automobiles. The Ford Motor company was the first company to produce an inexpensive car which would meet all of the requirements of the masses and which could be used in almost every line of commercial business, as well as being suitable for the actual requirements of traveling, although possibly not possessing all of the comforts that might be desired.

Popularized Tractor
"Mr. Ford popularized the tractor, which is now being used in factories, warehouses, railroad depots, on the farms and in many other operations, and today the Fordson is known through the civilized world.
Aeroplane Experiments
"He is now taking hold of the aeroplane in a way that insures its production in large volume and the placing of it on a commercial basis. It will not be many years before the aeroplane will be produced in sufficient quantities and at low enough prices to make it a means of commercial transportation within the reach of the average citizen. This will be brought about very largely through the efforts of the Ford Motor company.

Publishes Paper
"Mr. Ford has some very definite convictions and he does not hesitate to give expression to them through his famous publication, "The Dearborn Independent." He makes a very strong appeal in his articles from week to week to the laboring men, as he continually presents his convictions concerning the dignity of honest productive labor. He likewise praises and condemns other groups and movements without fear or favor. He is rich enough to be thoroughly independent and he has sense enough to know that his money is made from being a good friend of the masses rather than a special friend of the classes.

All Waste Saved
"One of the great secrets of the success of the Ford Motor company is the fact that they save the waste. There is substantially nothing that does not have a commercial value when it comes within the grasp of the Ford Motor company. A ton of coal that normally is worth $5.00 per ton is mined by the Ford Motor company from its own mines, transported by its own railroad, delivered to its own storage yards, so that there is no middle man to make any profits in connection with any of these operations.

"When the coal is delivered to its manufacturing plants it secures enough by-products from this coal to pay the entire cost of mining, transportation and handling charges and allow the company a profit of approximately $7.50 per ton and still have the essential part of the coal available for the purposes for which it is usually intended, namely, as a coking coal.

"The Ford Motor company receives its wool direct from the shearer and it is washed, scoured, cleaned and woven into a finished product, all at their own plant, and precisely the same situation is carried out in connection with the cotton, which is shipped direct from the producer to the Ford plant.

"They are now manufacturing a large percentage of the tires that are used on the Ford Motor cars and trucks and it will be of interest to you to know that the steering-wheels are very largely made from waste material, including the paste board boxes that are used by the men to carry their lunches. All of the parts of any kind of material that are not used in their original state are re-melted or worked over so as to make them have commercial value.

"Mr. Ford has done the thing that experts everywhere said was impossible when he invented the necessary furnaces and conveyors to produce a sheet of glass 472 feet in length and nearly 4 feet in width, which runs in a continuous stream. This operation produces the major portion of the glass that is used in connection with the wind-shields of the Ford motor cars.

Huge Plants

"There are substantially 278 acres in the Highland Park plant, approximately 105 acres of which are under cover. This plant employs approximately 50,000 men and is given up almost entirely to the manufacture of Ford cars and trucks.

"There are in the Fordson plant approximately 1100 acres, of which about 400 acres are under cover. This plant represents an investment of millions of dollars and is given up almost entirely to the manufacture of Fordson trucks and to the making of certain major parts for the Ford car. This plant employs approximately 60,000 men on an average.

"It is claimed that when the Ford Motor company closes its plant for a week the effect is felt all over the city of Detroit. These plants employ 110,000 men directly, on an average, and it is claimed that at least 40,000 to 50,000 additional men are directly affected by their operations, so that when a community of approximately a million and a quarter to a million and a half finds that one-tenth of its men are out of employment, you can appreciate that it has a tremendous effect on the entire community.

To Bring Big Payroll
"The most outstanding fact that I can bring to you is the statement that the Ford Motor company, if it employs on an average of 1500 men in its assembling plant at Richmond, will bring to the Eastbay territory as great a payroll as that which is produced by all of the new industries combined which have been secured for the Eastbay district during the year 1926.

"The buildings of the Ford Motor company are very substantial and are so arranged that the material is hoisted by derricks, elevators, travelling cranes or conveyors to the highest point at which it is required for manufacturing purposes and as the material is worked over it moves from floor to floor until it finally comes out in the form of a finished automobile which is driven away under its own power.

"The center of their main building is so arranged that the railroad cars are spotted in the center of the building, above which are traveling cranes which carry the heavier materials to the platforms that are projected from the various floors, so that the materials can be landed on any one of these platforms without interfering with the operations being carried on elsewhere. These projections are arranged a good deal like a series of steps, thereby making it possible for the travelling crane to drop its load directly on any one of the platforms as may be desired, so that under this arrangement the raw products may be hoisted to the top floor or any other floor where they are desired and the finished product comes out on the ground floor and is immediately loaded into a car which is spotted in the same position as the cars were from, which the raw products were taken.

Courteous Employees

"There is one other side of the Ford Motor company that I would like to touch upon. It is simply this—never in all of my experience have I dealt with a firm where greater uniform courtesy was extended by those in authority than in the case of the Ford Motor company. During the time of my visits to Detroit every courtesy was extended me and I was made to feel that I was really a guest of the company rather than one there in the interests of a purely commercial transaction.

"When it is realized that this great fortune and commanding position has been created and developed within the past 20 years, it staggers us to think of the magnitude that this corporation will develop into within the next 20 years.
"Mr. Henry Ford is now shifting the responsibilities on to his son, Edsel, and as I said before, his son is going to be a worthy successor to his father. Mr. Edsel Ford reminds me a great deal of President Coolidge. He is quiet, collected, simple in his tastes, and a man who is very highly regarded and respected by those with whom he is associated. He is regarded as a clear thinker and a man of progressive ideas.

"Some people fear large wealth in the hands of a few individuals but when that wealth is placed in the hands of men of the type of Henry Ford and his son, Edsel, we can regard it as a blessing, as surely no one could do more good with the same amount of money than is being done by Henry Ford and Edsel Ford in the employment that they are giving, in the joy that they are giving to people in modest circumstances everywhere, in the opening up of new territories because of the cheap mode of transportation and in the wholesome influence which they are wielding in this country at a time when honest labor needs to be dignified. We should never fear great wealth, as the people always have the final control over great fortunes. We have in this country the income tax, the inheritance tax, and if at anytime wealth becomes too bold in its demands, too grasping for greater power, then such laws as the anti-trust law, Interstate Commerce commission, and other agencies or laws are created to protect the interest of the average man. If wealth goes to too great extremes, it is in jeopardy by facing a condition such as transpired in Russia when all of the great estates were ruthlessly wiped aside; and those who have great wealth have sense enough to know that there is a danger point beyond which they dare not go.

Moulds Public Opinion
"There is only one thing in which I envy Mr. Ford and that is in his ability to mould public opinion through the world-wide contact that he possesses. Mr. Ford is a great success in his business ventures and inasmuch as this is an age of outstanding commercial achievements and Mr. Ford stands in the forefront of this illustrious company, his words carry great weight. I do not envy (Continued on Page 8)

Negative
Dec. 28, 1926
At the begin-ning of last summer my blood test showed two positives; that is, I had two x's. It had previously been four x's (posi-tives).
After I failed to get relief by treatments of hyposdermic shots I decided to give the Fong Wan Herbs a trial. I drank the herbs for only one month. Neverthe-less when I had a blood test taken again on Dec. 24, 1926, the test showed negative. So my blood is thoroughly cleansed and I am O. K. at last. I shall cer-tainly enjoy a Happy New Year. Because of my gratitude for the Fong Wan Herb Treatment, I am glad to give this testimonial.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE
Value Without Parallel,
Defies All Competition,
$3995.00 Total Price.

2 FAMILY FLAT.
$2500.00 DOWN
150 Feet Off Macdonald Avenue.
Can you imagine 17? Four good rooms with bath on first floor, and five good rooms and bath on second floor. Nine rooms in all, two baths, two buffets, two garages, two lots with plenty of room for drive, and only 150 feet from Macdonald. The Day of Miracles is not yet gone. Whether Ford comes to town or not, this is one good buy, and bound to make money. Located right in the heart of things. Splendid tip to condition inside and out. Paying and other street work all paid. Lots of cement work. And all this for $3995.00. Monthly payments about $37.50 including interest. May have to set $10.00, but you can get more than half of this back from one of the flats. Lower flat now rented and upper occupied by owner. Its the most prop-erty for the least money that I have seen in Richmond. An un-questionable bargain. A wide open opportunity for bargain hunters, speculators, renters or anyone else wanting a home to live in with some side income, and a marvelous opportunity for an increase in value. This is not a catch add. If you are a doubter we crave to show you this property right now.

C. C. YOUNG IS INAUGURATED AS GOVERNOR

tion by Governor Young of his first message to the state legislature, and, through that body, to the people of the state upon the policies of government which the new administration will maintain during the coming year.

It was a constructive program which Governor Young gave to the legislature.

Outstanding in the governor's recommendations were these:

1. Completion of the state highway system under a gasoline tax, or equivalent method of raising revenues.
2. Formation of a tax commission.
3. Utmost economy in state expenditures.
4. Support of a water and forestry conservation program, with a state advisory commission to operate in conjunction with the federal government.
5. Re-organization of state departments, and provision for a governor's council or administrative heads.
6. Re-Organization of the state department of education.
7. No interference with legitimate business, but no "special interests" interference with legislation.
8. Protection of the direct primary and direct legislation against attack.
9. Legislation for prison and criminal procedure methods reform.

The message was meaty with suggestions, and filled with the thought of progress and of development.

It carried the line of high standards and of progressive ideals, coupled with a definite thought that, so far as this administration is concerned, it will be practical and thoroughly awake to the conduct of the state's business upon a basis of definite economies.

It set forth with definite point the declaration that while progress is essential, that progress which Governor Young stands for does not mean a tearing down, but rather an up-building of every legitimate business, industry and activity.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills

The Old Reliable Family Remedy for Building Up the System, Nervous Affections, Insomnia, etc.

In this strenuous age, most people are afflicted with some form of nervous trouble. Hospitals are overflowing with men and women seeking to win back health of body and mind. If you are nervous, irritable, "jumpy," if your system is run down, if you feel that you may be on the verge of a nervous breakdown, read what P. J. Cole, of 628 S. Lambert Street, Brazil, Indiana, says:

"It would be hard for me to tell how much good I have received from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic (Nerve) Pills. I was so run down in health I could hardly go. I had no appetite. Could not sleep or rest. I was weak and so very nervous. I suffered some pain but the worst of my trouble was because being so weak and easy to get tired the nervous condition was worse than the pain."

"I decided to use your Tonic (Nerve) Pills. A few boxes restored me to perfect health. I can eat and sleep well. I have never found anything better for a run-down nervous condition."

You can buy these Tonic Pills at all Drug Stores To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on each box—your protection against imitations.

into his wealth but I would rejoice in the privilege of being able to speak words that would carry conviction and weight to men and women everywhere, hereby having the privilege of being in moulding public opinion for the things of right and righteousness and in giving emphasis to fundamental things which make for happiness, peace and prosperity.

"Mr. John Ross has said: 'Across the stage of our national life there has passed in the last 150 years a glorious company of nation builders, men who devoted their time and talents to serving their country and their fellow men. They were the Master Builders, members of the true order of nobility, men imbued with the spirit of service.'"

"It is well known that it was not given to the great leaders of the world to live to see the result of their work. Life, after all, is but a tapestry of varying beauty and design. While each acts as his own weaver, we never see the finished product, because we are obliged to work with the shuttle and loom. The shuttle goes incessantly and weaves into the pattern the bright threads of joy, of service, the dark and sombre lines of sorrow and selfishness. Nothing can stop the shuttle and a thread once woven cannot be withdrawn. It therefore behooves us, to make sure that into the warp and woof of the tapestry of life there goes only that which is truly ennobling, so that when we pass on, those who knew us will be inspired by our lives and keep our memory green in the garden of their hearts."

"Mr. Ford has lived to see the results of his labor to a very marked degree and he has the joy of knowing that his son will be able to carry on, building upon the foundation which he has so splendidly laid so that the Ford Motor company will in the years to come render an increasingly valuable service to humanity."

Mayor Mattie Chandler, Billy Horn, Bulletin artist and Councilman Harry Plate were introduced by G. E. Milnes, chairman of the day, as his guests. Jim Silt provided the comedy of the program by a doughty monologue.

MARTINEZ WILL BE CLASSED AS A "CITY" NOW

MARTINEZ, Jan. 4.—Martinez has grown up. It refuses to be the little "town" of yesterday, but must put on the raiment of success and be known by the title of maturity. Martinez is now a city, and as such, it now wishes to be considered.

The county seat of Contra Costa county for the past 77 years, Martinez was founded by the Martinez family and incorporated under the general state law as the "Town of Martinez." That was when the word "town" signified a community of considerable importance. But following the advent of the word "city" into common use, the home folks tired of the designation and set about to remedy the obsolete term.

Petitions have been circulated and generously signed resulting in a draft being submitted last night to the board by City Attorney A. F. Bray. The ordinance provides the more metropolitan cognomen of "city" to Martinez and the change to be effected thirty days after the final reading of the draft is passed which is expected to be on February 7.

BIRTHS RECORDED

Three births were recorded by the city health department yesterday, they were:

Henrietta Carol Whiffen, daughter of Henry L. and Gladys A. Whiffen of El Cerrito, born December 31.

Robert Alfred Ceridono, son of Alfred and Mary Ceridono, 18 Standard avenue, born January 1.

Luella Mary Engel, daughter of Otto Herman and Pearl D. born January 2.

Burke Council To Hold annual dance Here This Evening

The Burke Council of the Young Men's Institute will hold its annual dance this evening at the Memorial hall. The committee in charge of the affair have spared no labors in making this event a huge success. Adequate entertainment will be provided for the dance lovers of the city and special music is being arranged by Bernard Weisgerber's famous orchestra which will provide the music.

The Lightbearers, Westminster Circle and Friendly Indians clubs of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting at the church at 3:15 o'clock today, following a vacation over the holidays. A program of special interest has been arranged.

CIVIC CENTER CLUB TO MEET TODAY

The Civic Center club will be entertained this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. G. D. Stewart, 335 Bissell avenue, for the first meeting of the new year.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN AID MEETS TODAY

The first meeting of the new year will be held tomorrow afternoon at the church by the First Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society. The officers urge all members to be in attendance.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock and a business meeting will follow.
